

Monthly Book Group – July to December 2019

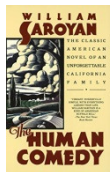

Everyone is welcome!

Third Wednesday of the month

7 to 8 p.m.

Library Program Room

July 17, 2019

The Human Comedy

By William Saroyan

Members of the Macauley family find their peaceful existence in rural California greatly changed in the early months of 1942.

August 21, 2019

Just Mercy

By Bryan Stevenson

Stevenson founded the Equal Justice Initiative to defend those most desperate and in need. This is the unforgettable account of an idealistic young lawyer's coming of age, and an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of justice.

September 18, 2019

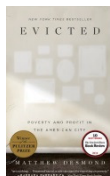

Where'd You Go, Bernadette

By Maria Semple

After a school fundraiser goes disastrously awry, Bernadette disappears, leaving her family to pick up the pieces. An unabashedly entertaining novel.

October 16, 2019

Evicted: Poverty and Profit in an American City

By Matthew Desmond

Tells the story of eight families on the edge in the poorest neighborhoods of Milwaukee. As we see families forced into shelters, squalid apartments, or more dangerous neighborhoods, we witness the human cost of American inequality.

November 20, 2019

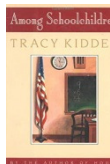

A Farewell to Arms

By Ernest Hemingway

The unforgettable story of an American ambulance driver on the Italian front and his passion for a beautiful English nurse. This gripping, semi-autobiographical work captures the harsh realities of war and the pain of lovers caught in its sweep.

December 18, 2019

Among Schoolchildren

By Tracy Kidder

For an entire year, Tracy Kidder lived among twenty schoolchildren and their indomitable, compassionate teacher. He has written a revealing, remarkably poignant account of education in America.

Monthly Book Group

Sunnyvale
Public Library